

A Letter from the AMTA President

Dear Colleagues,

Hope this newsletter finds you well, and that you and your loved ones are safe and well. Thank you for all your hard work, passion, and professional service to continue fostering the musical learning and performances across Alabama and beyond through your dedicated music teaching.

You have demonstrated time and again your outstanding work, adaptiveness, and perseverance through the great student participation in AMTA auditions and events this year.

We are grateful for the service of former AMTA Board members, Jason Terry, Omar Roy, and Brittney Patterson. Their dedicated work has helped this organization to continue with virtual events successfully during the pandemic. Please join me in welcoming two new Board members, Hannah Roberts, and James Michael Covington, and past AMTA president Sarah Tanner to the Board. We are very excited to announce that Hannah will serve as Awards Chair, Michael will serve as AMTA & MTNA Composition Competition & Commissioning Chair, and Sarah will serve as the newly combined role as Soundboard Newsletter Editor and Advertising Chair. My deepest gratitude to all AMTA Board Members, Local Association Presidents and Board Members, and entire membership for your devoted time and volunteer work in helping to build AMTA in each area of the state during these challenging times; especially when twenty-four hours are seemingly scarce to split between virtual and in-person life both professionally and privately.

We mourn the loss of two AMTA members, Ruth Glover Graham, and Glenda Potts. Ruth Glover Graham was a long-time teacher and member of AMTA and MMMF. She had helped to organize the Prattville Hymn Festival in the 1970's, and held offices in the local Guild and AMTA. Glenda Potts was a long time member of AMTA and MMTF as well, and was living in Birmingham.

The 2022 MTNA National Conference will be held on March 26–30 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. It promises to be the most inclusive conference ever. This in-person conference will also be offered in virtual format for you to enjoy at home right here in Alabama (without the snow)! You can visit the MTNA 2022 Conference website link here to register and learn more.

Each of you is critical to the organizational success of AMTA. Thank you for all your continuous work and service with your community, local, and state associations. I am honored and humbled to have this wonderful opportunity to serve this amazing organization with all of you. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Hope you have a great start to the winter season!

Yours Sincerely,

Melody Ng, NCTM
AMTA President

Certification News

AMTA congratulates another newly certified member in Sandy Stephenson. Originally from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Sandy has resided for the past 30 years in Birmingham, Alabama. She has taught children's choir and private piano lessons for over 40 years. She taught at Samford's Piano Adventures Camp and All Aboard Preschool Music Camp for many years and has led seminars in teaching preschool music and elementary music. Sandy is currently an assistant music director for the youth performing ensembles at Red Mountain Theatre. She has served for the past 16 years as Minister to Children at Double Oak Community Church along with teaching private piano lessons there at the church. Sandy is married to Kelly Stephenson, Care Pastor for Double Oak Community Church and has three children and five grandchildren.

Meet a Local Association President

Dr. Cindy St. Clair, President of Birmingham Metro Music Forum

Pianist Cindy St. Clair has appeared throughout the United States and Europe as a soloist and collaborator. She has had notable performances in the Classical Music Festival in Eisenstadt, Austria. She has also been a featured soloist with the Huxford Symphony Orchestra, the University of Alabama Symphonic Band, and the Samford University Orchestra. In demand as a collaborative pianist, Dr. St. Clair has a wealth of experience working with vocalists, ensembles, instrumentalists, choirs, and musical theatre groups. Most recent engagements include performances at the Music by Women Festival in Mississippi and at Auburn University. She is currently collaborating on several projects with Christopher Jordan, baritone, relating to music by African American composers.

Dr. St. Clair holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree and a Master of Music degree in Piano Performance from the University of Alabama and a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano Performance from Samford University. Dr. St. Clair also holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Paralegal Studies with a concentration in Business from Samford University. She worked 16 years in the legal field prior to pursuing her degrees in music during which time she spent many years serving on the Board of Directors for the Alabama Association of Paralegals, Inc., mentoring students, and presenting lectures at conferences.

Currently, Dr. St. Clair is Interim Chair of the Division of Music at Samford University, as well as Assistant Professor of Piano. Previously, she served as Chair of the Department of Music and Director of the Quality Enhancement Plan for Judson College. In 2019, she received the Mary Gibson Thompson Teaching Award for Excellence at Judson. She has won several piano competitions in the region and is frequently invited to adjudicate piano competitions, give masterclasses, and present lectures. She is a certified teacher in piano by the Music Teachers National Association. She now serves on the executive board of the Alabama Music Teachers Association and is the 2021-2022 President of the Birmingham Metro Music Forum.

News from Baldwin County Music Teachers Association

Does it surprise anyone that we are still teaching with masks and sanitizing protocols? This may be the new norm. The Baldwin County Music Teachers have elected new officers for the next term. They are:

President: Christy Myers

Treasurer: Lindsey Hughes

First Vice President: Jeanne O'Connell, NCTM

Historian/Publicity: Vincentine Williams, NCTM

Second Vice President: Amy Morgan

Music Camp Chair: Laura Gruenloh

Secretary: Eric Marrero

BCMTA has planned a full year of activities for our students. Despite the pandemic we hope to provide meaningful and productive events to enhance the learning progress of our students.

October 23, Fall Recital Usually two recitals to provide for all the students wishing to play.

November 1, Hymn Fest To promote hymn playing among our students.

January 29, 2022 Musicalooza Music Camp. To promote fellowship among our private students and musical interactions with one another using games, dance, rhythm activities, art activities, Masterclasses, performances.

February 5, 2022 Gulf Coast Steinway Society Competition for all private students along the Gulf Coast.

March 12, 2022 Boys' Recital exclusively for Boys.

TBD Adult Musicales for adult students to perform in a nurturing, relaxed environment without comparison with one another.

March 26, 2022 AMTA District Auditions

 TBD Guild

May 1, 2022 Senior recital for all seniors who have committed to private study of their instrument throughout high school.

This holds another full year of events for our students. We hope to make it a great year.

Dr. Kadisha Onalbayeva from the University of Mobile came to our October meeting held at the Steinway Piano Gallery in Spanish Fort to discuss the Gulf Coast Steinway Society Music Competition to be held on Saturday, February 5, 2022 at the University of Mobile and to give tips on how to train students to avoid performance anxiety. Dr. Onalbayeva is standing in the back with Christy Myers, BCMTA President along with many of its members.
