A Letter from the AMTA President

Dear AMTA Members,

Hope you have all enjoyed a wonderful summer! As most of you know, mine began with the 70th Annual AMTA Conference. Please allow me to dedicate this letter to offering thanks to the many people who brought this conference into being and giving you a brief snapshot of the weekend.

This year's conference was a hybrid with two days full of student performances at the University of Alabama at Birmingham as well as an online component of member presentations and performances. Our guest artist, Anthony Padilla, gave a gorgeous and intimate recital of works by female composers that included Amy Beach, Margaret Bonds, Tania León to name only a few. He was incredibly giving of his time and knowledge both after the recital answering questions and in the masterclass with AMTA Collegiate Piano Winners.

Congratulations to our ASRA Winner, Ruth Sommer (student of Andy Martin)! Congratulations also goes to ASRA Honorable Mention, Shannon Boutwell (student of Ronald Shinn). These students were selected by our guest artist during the Division III portion of the Pre-College Piano Winners' Circle Recital.

Our business meeting voted in the new slate of officers and recognized the service of Melody Ng during her term as president. We were also able to finally honor Teacher of the Year (2021) Susan Hoop in person!

Tremendous thanks is owed to Patrick Evans for so graciously offering the use of performance, practice, and meeting spaces at the UAB Hulsey Center. He and DeJohn Tellis-Oliver went above and beyond to make sure that we had the spaces we needed and that we were well taken care of while we inhabited those spaces.

Thank you to Melody Ng for her guidance and assistance in the planning of the conference at any hour of the day or night! Sarah Tanner and Joshua Pifer were essential in the success of the conference as they helped in the planning stages, aided in set up before the conference, and stepped in to assist with various tasks during the conference. It is an honor to learn from and serve alongside you all in this organization.

To the Conference Committee (Jodean Tingle, Ronald Shinn, and Eun-Hee Park), thank you for sharing invaluable ideas for planning a safe conference and contingency plan. To the members and board members who stepped in to assist during the conference by monitoring recitals, assisting with set-up, and generally being on-call for any other needs, I am grateful! Thank you to Barbara Shinn for proofreading programs and other booklet items with amazing speed and accuracy. My immense gratitude to Wendy McGee, Alexandra Naylor, and Hannah Roberts for giving so freely of their time – and their strength during clean-up!

Conference attendees received generous swag from our sponsors: Ashley Mac's, Taco Mama, and (most importantly) Sarah Tanner Art. To all who attended, thank you for making history not only by commemorating our 70th Conference, but by celebrating our students in-person once again.

Finally, thank you to the AMTA Executive Board and all of the AMTA Members for entrusting me with the position of AMTA President. I look forward to the opportunities that await AMTA in the coming years!

Sincerely, Laura Beth Mitchell-Bisset

2023 Conference News

This next year, the AMTA State Conference will be held at Jacksonville State University on June 1st through 3rd. I am so honored and thrilled for this opportunity to work closely with AMTA leaderships to prepare another exciting AMTA State Conference for our members. Jacksonville State University, now newly renovated recovering from the tornado back in 2018, will welcome our members with brighter and shining smiles.

As we are coming back to the full excitement of three days of conference next year, I am so looking forward to our conference offering a package of practical and essential insights in pedagogy, performance, and wellness for our members and invited new attendees.

I am working on securing local quality hotel accommodations close to the JSU campus at a reasonable rate as well as to reserve JSU facilities for our members' convenience. Members are invited to actively participate, presenting your research as presenters or sharing your wonderful performance at the members' recital. Call for the proposal will be announced in the fall and I cannot wait to share more detailed information in the next Soundboard Newsletter.

Looking forward to meeting you again at the 2023 AMTA State Conference at Jacksonville State University, located in the beautiful foothills of the Appalachian mountain.

Rachel Park, AMTA First Vice President

District News:

On behalf of the West Alabama Music Teachers Association, I would like to thank the University of Alabama Student Chapter of the Music Teachers National Association (UAMTNA) for sponsoring an event as part of AMTA Statewide Music Celebration Month, and for making it available to WAMTA teachers. On February 3, 2022, at the University of Alabama Moody Music Building, UAMTNA presented Dr. Hannah Roberts, pianist, in a lecture recital entitled "Uncovering Forgotten Women: A Pedagogical Exploration of Helen Hopekirk's Piano Repertoire."

Dr. Roberts is a faculty member at the University of Alabama. She is Instructor of Piano and teaches Applied Piano, Piano Pedagogy, and Piano Ensemble. She recently completed the Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Piano Performance and Pedagogy from the University of Oklahoma. Her teachers include Dr. Jeongwon Ham (Piano) and Dr. Barbara Fast and Dr. Jane McGrath (Piano Pedagogy).

WAMTA offers a heartfelt thanks to Dr. Roberts and the UAMTNA students.
