A Letter from the AMTA President

Dear AMTA Members,
Whether your summer involves taking a break, traveling, performing, summer camps, or other opportunities, I hope you are all enjoying the season. It was a joy to see so many of you kicking off your summer at the AMTA Conference in Jacksonville! Rachel Park put together a wonderful three days of learning, fellowship, and recitals. Congratulations to all the student performers and to their teachers. The level of playing at each recital was truly stunning! It was a privilege to meet with district chairs and local association presidents at the conference as we continue to streamline our district auditions and prepare for programs and events in our local associations. Thank you to all the members who attended the conference and the board members who assisted with various components. Thank you also to our generous conference sponsors and to the Jacksonville State Department of Music for so graciously hosting us!

Congratulations to our 2023 AMTA Teacher of the Year, Yakov Kasman! Thank you to Melody Ng, AMTA Immediate Past President, and the members of the TOY Committee for their work in selecting this year's TOY from the nominations.

As many of you are aware, Kevin Chance was elected MTNA President-Elect! Please join me in congratulating him as he embarks on this journey of leading MTNA with the same superb guidance and expertise he has given our state organization.

Lastly, thank you to all the members who support this organization and help it to thrive. The conference is always a testament to the level of teaching in our state and the sense of community found in the organization. I hope all of you will begin making plans to bring that community and knowledge to the MTNA Conference in Atlanta in March and again at the AMTA Conference next summer. In the meantime, wishing you a summer that will provide exactly what is needed to start the fall ready to share the joy of music with your students and community!

Sincerely,
Laura Beth Mitchell-Bisset, NCTM, AMTA President

A Letter from 1st Vice-President

Congratulations and thank you to everyone who attended and participated in making the 71st Annual AMTA State Conference an exciting time together! It was such a delightful and meaningful reunion. I would love to celebrate and recognize the great success of this year's conference with each of the AMTA members! As you can imagine, the art of collaboration with numerous people made the conference possible. I can only express my appreciation to all who made the conference possible together!

As we returned to the in-person conference for the first time since the pandemic, it was quite nervous and hard to anticipate the numbers of attendees, but with the close to 70 registrations and 90 student winners traveled with their families packed the conference place full of energy and excitement!

Alabama MTNA and AMTA winners opened up the conference with their glorious performances. All student winners of the Collegiate and Pre-College Divisions, I, II, III, proved the level of the artistry and the quality of music education of the State of Alabama! Thank you, wonderful teachers for your sincere guidance leading your students to reach up to their musical potential. Congratulations students and parents! Your commitment, effort, and support were revealed through performances!

Our Guest Clinician, Gail Berenson offered such an inspiring three lecture sessions about the arts of communication, performance anxiety, and practice strategies and well-being. Her insightful wisdom gained through decades of her teaching shined in every line of her speech.

Our guest artist, Dr. William Newbrough offered a well-received masterclass for the Collegiate Piano Solo Winners and selected the Division III ASRA piano winner. His breathtaking artistry and rare & unique selection for the program presented such an unforgettable experience to the audience. We also had wonderful string guest artists, Dr.

Laurel Yu and Kristine

Pfeifer Yu and the voice guest artist, Dr. Shellie Beeman offered a master class and pedagogical session. The master classes and lectures were well appreciated by attendees and it was great action of the AMTA continually supporting the areas such as string and voice by offering beneficial sessions and masterclass. I would like to thank Mr. Aaron Garner who offered a music technology session for the conference. He provided such an exciting hands-on learning experience about a new app called Piano Marvel, which he invented to help piano study for students and teachers. My heartfelt thanks go to our own proud AMTA colleagues who offered members presentations and performed at the members' recital:

Mijung Trepanier, Kevin Chance, Wendy Freeland, Rachel Park, and Josh Pifer with the members of the Plains2 (Matthew Wood, Lindsay Leach Sparks, and Peter M. Geldrich).

A huge thanks to our AMTA President, Laura-Beth, former Presidents, Melody Ng and Josh Pifer who offered very fine detailed guidance and advice with warm encouragement for me. Without your help I would have no idea what I was supposed to do preparing for this year's conference. Also, many thanks to Hannah Roberts for preparing and presenting the award plaques and T-shirts for each student winner. Always thanks to Kristie Smith for your magic fingers flashing the camera to capture our memories at AMTA conferences. I hope your face can be in as many as photos with us each year! Such a deep appreciation to my JSU colleague, Wendy Freeland who prepared for the Happy Hour by contacting wineries for donations and setting up the table as well as serving as the host of the guest artist offering multiple rides between Birmingham and Jacksonville. Thank you, Hannah Roberts and Josh Pifer again serving service guest clinician and string guest artists as a host person. Also, Ron and Barbara Shinn who constantly communicated with me for updating information on the AMTA website and through emails to the AMTA members throughout the year. You are amazing!

I would like to express my deep appreciation to the leaderships and personals of the Jacksonville State University welcoming the AMTA members, student winners, and their parents by opening the beautifully renovated JSU facilities available for the conference. I believe we all enjoyed the beautiful recital hall with a new Yamaha concert grand piano just prepared for the AMTA conference (thank you, Dr. Renée Baptiste, the music department head of the JSU), the wonderful members' banquet with relaxing atmosphere with the sunset coming through the glass walls and live performance of the JSU Jazz ensemble led by Dr. Andy Nevala at the Merrill Hall Atrium.

I would also want to recognize the generous support from leading music businesses and local vendors who sent gifts and donations to the AMTA members: Ellis Piano Gallery ($100 donation), CVS Jacksonville, E.Z Note, Goldston Music, Keys to Imagination, Maraella Vineyards and Winery, Piano Marvel, Red Bird Café, Southern Winery, Sprout Beat, Starbucks Jacksonville, TOMGEROUMUSIC, Walgreen Jacksonville, and Silent Film Festival. Thank you!

My deep gratitude goes to all the AMTA Executive Board members and colleagues, and JSU student volunteers who willingly spent their precious time and energy with me to make this year's conference such a huge success!

I am truly honored and thankful to serve the AMTA, such an amazing organization filled with great people like you who love music, life, and friendship sharing the same passion! Looking forward to seeing you all soon at the next AMTA events as well as in next year's 72 nd Annual AMTA State Conference!

Sincerely,
Rachel Park

March 26, 1970- May 25, 2023

I only knew Debi for a few years, but she made me feel welcome in HMTA from the first moment I met her. Her warm personality and smile made me feel like I had been friends with her for years. She was a very gifted musician and a great leader in HMTA and yet very humble. When the state conference was held in Huntsville, I was thoroughly enthralled by her performance and amazed at how many notes she could play so quickly as if using all 10 fingers like a pianist. Her amazing gift of music that she shared with many people will be greatly missed, and I am thankful I was blessed to experience a small part of it.

Sincerely,
Leigh Stringfield

AMTA Handbook Changes

Dear Colleagues,

The following update for the AMTA Handbook was announced at the AMTA Conference at JSU! It was great to see several of you there, and the changes were well received. Since this impacts most of our members, I wanted to send this as well by email since the changes will be effective with our next district audition cycle in Spring 2024. Please pay particular attention to the changes made to the Gold and Silver levels for Division II and III. Many thanks to Susan Hoop and Ron Shinn with their help carefully reviewing the syllabus and helping brainstorm for effective updates. We developed what we feel is more sound sequencing of keys for Division 1, and we tried to eliminate to the best of our ability large jumps that were perceived in the old syllabus in Division 1. A big change that was made in this regard is that ages 7 and 8 are NO LONGER COMBINED. Age 7 does not yet have to prepare the cadence, and there are fewer new keys than they had when we combined ages 7-8. We also felt that it would be a huge benefit to the students and give more credence to the Gold Level auditions to require more arpeggios in Divisions 2 and 3. Now, the students will be learning all of their scales and all of their standard arpeggios by their senior year. We have an accommodation for the silver level such that those students can play cross-hand arpeggios in lieu of the standard arpeggios. For the Gold Level, you will note that we are not trying to trick the students with the required keys as we are largely introducing new keys that share the same fingering premise together.

This summer, we are going to work on updating the theory forms on the AMTA website, and we are hoping to develop several YouTube videos for teachers, parents, and students of mock auditions for each division. We hope this will help those new to the auditions understand what to expect in the audition room. We will update as these projects are completed. I am also happy to present judge workshops on the new handbook for local associations as well.

Thanks so much for your support of our auditions, and if you have questions, do not hesitate to ask!

I hope you have a safe and rejuvenating summer!

Kevin

2024 AMTA HANDBOOK SUMMARY OF CHANGES

For ages 6-12, judges will ask for RH OR LH for the chords. This will be reflected on the theory sheet. Students must prepare each hand, but only one hand will be demonstrated for each key. They also should be aware of playing with the correct hand.

No changes have been made to the chords, cadences, and intervals beyond some minor sequencing adjustments.

Division I

The most substantial changes are in Division 1 where we have sequenced the keys into a pedagogically sound order that emphasizes fingering patterns over key signatures.

Age 6: Required keys are now C, G, and D Major. F Major is removed.

Age 7 and Age 8 are no longer combined.

Age 7: Required keys are now C, G, D Major and A Minor.
NO CADENCE REQUIRED. All other requirements remain the same.

Age 8: Required keys: C, G, D Major; A, E, D Minor.
Add Cadence.

Age 9: Required keys: C, G, D, A, E Major; A, E, D Minor.

Age 10: Required keys: C, G, D, A, E, F Major; C, G, F, D, A, E Minor
Two-octave scales are no longer required at age 10.
Chords and inversions are still required.

Age 11: Required keys: C, G, D, A, E, B, F Major; C, G, F, D, A, E, B Minor
Two-octave scales are required.

Divisions II and III

The required keys for scales, chords, cadences, and intervals remain unchanged. The only scale change is that age 16 is now required to play 4 octaves instead of 3 octaves. 3 octave scales have been eliminated.

However, substantial changes have been made for ARPEGGIOS. For students playing at the GOLD LEVEL, the following standard arpeggio keys should be prepared. Note that the keys are introduced by fingering groups. Students playing at the SILVER LEVEL should prepare the same keys, but they may play cross-hand arpeggios.

Arpeggios by age:

12: C, G, F Major; C, G, F Minor

13: C, G, F Major; C, G, F, D, A, E, B Minor

14: C, G, F, D, A, E, B Major; C, G, F, D, A, E, B Minor

15: All white key majors and minors; C# and F# Major; C# and F# Minor

16: All white key majors and minors; C#, F#, Bb, and Eb Major; C#, F#, Bb and Eb Minor

17-18: All white and black key majors and minors

Hello, members! I would love to get many competitors in the MTNA Performance Competition. Encourage your students to enter. Please note that the MTNA state (Alabama) competition deadline is coming up soon. I am the State Competition chair, but all registrations must come through the national site. After the deadline, I will be setting up the days and times for all students. The collegiate piano will be on FRIDAY, November 3 during the day at Birmingham-Southern College, 900 Arkadelphia Road, Birmingham, Alabama 35254. All other competitions will be on Saturday, November 4 starting at 9:00 AM. If your students have time constraints, I may not be able to accommodate because of the limited number of entrants and the times I have judges available. Please be available the entire day.

If you have questions about the schedule, please contact me. Put MTNA Performance Competition in the subject. If you have questions about the registration or repertoire, please contact the national office. Thanks. Jodean Tingle

MTNA Competitions Registration is Now Available!

The deadline for Composition, Junior, Senior and Young Artist entries is Wednesday, September 13, 2023, 3:00 P.M. Eastern Time.

Due to the anticipated volume of last-minute submissions, MTNA advises you to submit your registration early. Technical support and staff assistance will be available 8:00 A.M.–4:00 P.M. Eastern Time, Monday–Friday. The registration must be COMPLETED by the 3:00 P.M. Eastern Time deadline. Those not completed by that time will not be able to finish their registration form and therefore not be entered into the competition. Teachers are responsible for verifying all repertoire on the registrations of their students.

The following should be available prior to completing the registration:

- PERFORMANCE: Complete repertoire information (title, movement numbers, opus or catalog numbers, tempo markings, complete composer names, historical period and timings).
- COMPOSITION: Computer-generated PDF score and YouTube link.
- Valid credit card number and security code (American Express, MasterCard and Visa only).

Chamber Music entry and video upload deadline is Wednesday, December 6, 2023, 3:00 P.M. Eastern Time. Registration will be available Wednesday, November 1, 2023.

For questions contact MTNA at (888) 512-5278 or competitions@mtna.org.
